Notice under Law (NSW)

The Fair Trading Amendment (Employment Placement Services) Act 2002 and the Fair Trading (General) Amendment (Employment Placement Services) Regulation 2003 requires Employment Agencies to provide the following notice to job seekers...

Begin notice

1. An employment placement service must not charge a job seeker a fee for the purpose of finding the job seeker employment;
2. An employment placement service must not engage in misleading or deceptive conduct (such as advertising a position as being available when the agency knows no such position exists or knowingly giving misleading information to a job seeker about the nature of a position ); and
3. If a job seeker believes that an employment placement service has acted inappropriately, the job seeker may contact the Department of Fair Trading for information on possible action that may be taken.

End notice
